MEDIA POLICIES FOR PIRATE GAMES

CREDENTIALS: Application for working media credentials should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead. Requests for season credentials should be made by March 15. Single-game requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game. Only Pittsburgh Pirate-, BBWAA- and National League-issued working media passes will be recognized. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering organizations. All credentials are non-transferable. No one under 18 years of age will be issued working credentials.

ADMISSION TO THE STADIUM: All credentialed media must enter Three Rivers Stadium (on game days) through Press Gate A, street level, beneath Gate A. The press gate opens 2 hours prior to game time. Daily Credentials will be left at the "Media Credential Pick-Up Window" outside Press Gate A.

CLUBHOUSES: The Pirate clubhouse is open to credentialed media pre-game, except for 45 minutes prior to game time. Pirate clubhouse is open to credentialed media immediately following game. Pirate clubhouse is open briefly between games of a doubleheader for only those with early deadlines and closed during rain delays. Visitors' clubhouse policy is governed by visiting clubs.

PRESS BOX: Open to credentialed working members of the print, radio and TV media. TV crew technicians will be accommodated in fourth-level booths. No cameras (still or video) are allowed in press box unless authorized by the Pirates.

FIELD: Field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until 30 minutes prior to game time.

PRESS LOUNGE: Open to credentialed media 90 minutes prior to game time until one hour after game concludes. Full meal is served pre-game; snacks and beverages available during games and beverage service is available post-game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Still photographers must work out of stationary locations adjacent to both dugouts (first base photo position has assigned locations for regular Pittsburgh media outlets). All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates.

ROVING: Roving (in stands) while the game is in progress by credentialed members of the media, including still photographers and TV video crews, is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates.

REPORTS, RADIO & TV: (Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries).

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file "live" reports — to air during regularly scheduled news programming — from the field or assigned fourth-level booth until game time or until the Pirate TV rightsholder's telecast begins.
- Live television reports — to air during regularly scheduled news programming — are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.

NOTE: The above "live-report" regulations pertain to regular-season games only as post-season play is governed by the National League and the Baseball Commissioner's Office.

MANAGER AND COACHES

THE MANAGER

JIM LEYLAND (MGR)

1990 OPENING DAY AGE: 45

BORN: Dec. 15, 1944 in Toledo, OH

RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA

HEIGHT: 6'0" WEIGHT: 180

BATS: Right THROWS: Right

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

The 1990 season will be Jim Leyland's fifth as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He compiled a 303-343 (.469) record in his first four seasons with the Bucs. Leyland signed a one-year contract extension on November 21, 1989 and is now under contract through the end of the 1991 season.

Leyland was named manager of the Pirates on November 20, 1985. He inherited a team that finished 57-104 the previous season. His first Pirate club showed a seven-game improvement (64-98), but still finished sixth in the N.L. East. The 1987 club won 27 of its last 38 games to post a mark of 80-82, a 16-game increase in the win column, and tied for fourth place in the division. In 1988, the Pirates added five more wins (85-75) and were runner-up in the N.L. East to the New York Mets. Last season, the Pirates finished fifth with a record of 74-88.

In 1988, Leyland was honored by THE SPORTING NEWS (TSN) as Co-Manager-of-the-Year in the National League along with Tommy Lasorda of the World Champion Los Angeles Dodgers. Each received the votes of four N.L. managers, the first time since TSN has honored major league managers that there has been a tie. Leyland finished second in the UPI Manager-of-the-Year balloting, behind Lasorda. Previous Pirale managers honored by TSN were Billy Meyer (1948) and Danny Murtaugh (1960 and 1970).

Leyland has been described as an intense competitor, but one who is able to put those around him at ease. He quickly established authority in the Pirate clubhouse, while at the same time maintaining a good rapport with his players as well as those in the front office.

His successful track record at every level, his dedication and his ability to teach were cited by the organization when announcing his appointment. Tigers' GM Bill Lajoie described him as being creative, a manager who always comes up with a new way to get a runner home. Former White Sox' GM Ken Harrelson said he has every quality you want in a manager — knowledge, patience and guts.

His appointment as manager followed more than 22 years of experience in professional baseball, including 11 seasons as a manager in the Detroit Tigers' farm system.

Leyland joined the Pirates after four seasons as the Chicago White Sox' third base coach and outfield instructor. He had been regarded as one of the finest third base coaches in the American League and had long been considered an outstanding major league managerial candidate.

A catcher during his playing days, Leyland signed his first professional contract with the Detroit organization in the fall of 1963. He served that organization as a player, minor league coach and minor league manager until joining the White Sox for the 1982 season.

A player from 1964 thru 1969, he was appointed coach at Montgomery (AA) in the Southern League in 1970. In 1971, at the age of 26, he received his first managerial assignment, taking over the Tigers' Bristol club of the Appalachian Rookie League. He also managed at Clinton (Class A) in the Midwest League, Montgomery, and Lakeland (Class A) in the Florida State League, before spending three seasons with the Tigers' Evansville (AAA) club in the American Association. His teams advanced to the playoffs in five of his last six seasons, winning three league championships. All told, his clubs made six post-season appearances in his 11 campaigns at the minor league level.

Leyland was named Manager-of-the-Year in the Florida State League in 1977 and 1978. He was also named as the American Association Manager-of-the-Year after leading Evansville to the league title in 1979.

Rich Donnelly is in his fifth season as the Pirates' Bullpen Coach. In that role, he does much more than answer the bullpen phone and make sure the relief pitchers are warmed up prior to entering a game.

Donnelly also coordinates workout schedules during spring training and all phases of the regular season pre-game routine. During the game it is his responsibility to keep a book on opposing hitters and to go over that material with the relievers so they are prepared for whom they may face when they enter a game.

A former catcher, Donnelly was originally signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1967 after playing four seasons at Xavier University in Cincinnati. He had been drafted twice previously by the Yankees, but opted to stay in school. A veteran of 22 years in professional baseball, the Steubenville (OH) native spent 16 seasons in the Washington/Texas organization before joining the Pirates.

Rich began his pro career as a player at St. Cloud (MN) in the Northern League in 1968. He tied for the league lead in games played in his first pro season and led league catchers in putouts (486), assists (58) and fielding percentage (.984).

Donnelly spent four years as a player prior to becoming manager of the Rangers' Greenville (Class A) club in the Western Carolinas League in 1972 at the age of 26. He managed the Rangers' Western Carolinas League clubs for four seasons, earning Manager-of-the-Year honors in each of his first three years when his clubs advanced to the playoffs. In 1974, his Gastonia club won the league title.

In 1976, the Rangers promoted Donnelly to manage at the Triple-A level in the Pacific Coast League. He piloted the Sacramento club in 1976, then Tucson for the next three seasons.

In 1980, he joined the Texas Rangers' staff as bullpen coach, but returned to manage at the Triple-A level in the American Association for the 1981 (Wichita) and 1982 (Denver) seasons. He returned to Texas in 1983 and was the Rangers' first base coach for three seasons before being named to his current post with the Pirates on December 12, 1985.

Ray Miller is in his fourth season as Pitching Coach for the Pirates. One of the most respected pitching coaches in baseball, he was named to his current post on October 20, 1986.

His duties include overseeing pitching mechanics, helping prepare game plans and scouting reports on opposing hitters, keeping daily pitching charts and records of how long each reliever is up in the bullpen during the course of a game.

Miller, who formerly managed the Minnesota Twins, is best known for his successful stint as pitching coach of the Baltimore Orioles. In seven and a half seasons (1978-85) in that role, he coached two Cy Young Award winners (Mike Flanagan and Steve Stone) and five different 20-game winners (Flanagan, Stone, Jim Palmer, Scott McGregor and Mike Boddicker). Baltimore also appeared in the World Series twice during his tenure, losing to Pittsburgh in 1979 and defeating Philadelphia in 1983.

Miller, who reports to the Florida Instructional League each fall, also helps oversee the development of the young pitchers in the organization.

Originally signed by the San Francisco Giants, Miller began his pro career in 1964, playing for Lexington (Class A) in the Western Carolinas League. He led the league in shutouts, was second in ERA and pitched a no-hitter (in a 0-0 game called by rain after 8.0 innings on 8/3) before being drafted by the Cleveland organization following the season. He was traded to the Baltimore organization in May of 1971 and ended his playing career with the Orioles' Rochester (AAA) club in 1973, a year in which he became a player-coach. He finished his pro career with a record of 60-65.

From 1974 thru 1977 he served as Baltimore's minor league pitching instructor, then joined the Orioles at the major league level for the 1978 season. On June 21, 1985, he became manager of the Minnesota Twins. The club went 50-50 in his first year and was 59-80 in 1986 when he was replaced on 9/12.

PLAYING POSITION: Infield

Tommy Sandt is in his fourth season as the Pirates' First Base Coach. He was named to his current post on October 16, 1986, following an outstanding five-year stint as a manager in the Pittsburgh farm system.

Prior to the game Sandt works with the infielders. During the game he is charge of the Pirates' baserunning, talking to runners about what to look for in pitchers' pick-off moves, about outfielders' arms, and what to be thinking in each situation.

A former major league infielder, Sandt was a player-coach for the Pirates' Portland (AAA) club in 1980 and 1981 prior to a two-year term as manager of the Pirates' Double-A entry in the Eastern League. In 1982, his Buffalo club finished 55-84. The team moved to Lynn (MA) in 1983 and finished in second place with a 77-62 mark, advancing to the Eastern League championship series. Following the season, Sandt was promoted to the Triple-A level as manager of the Pirates' Hawaii club in the Pacific Coast League.

Sandt led the Islanders to the best mark in Triple-A baseball in each of his first two seasons at Hawaii. In 1984, he was named PCL Manager-of-the-Year after Hawaii finished 87-53 (.621) overall, winning the second-half Southern Division title enroute to the PCL Championship Series. BASEBALL AMERICA also honored him that year as Triple-A Manager-of-the-Year. In 1985, the Islanders posted a mark of 84-59 (.587) overall, winning the first-half Southern Division crown. In 1986, Hawaii finished 65-79 (.451), giving Tommy a three-year Triple-A mark of 236-191 (.553). His teams compiled a record of 368-337 (.522) in five seasons as a minor league manager, advancing three times to post-season play.

Primarily a shortstop, Sandt spent most of his playing career in the Oakland Athletics organization. He was Oakland's second round selection in the June 1969 Free Agent Draft and was named the Northwest League's Player-of-the-Year that season. He made his major league debut in 1975 with the A's, after finishing fourth in the PCL in batting and leading league shortstops in fielding (.956). He then spent the entire 1976 season with Oakland, playing in 41 contests. He was signed as a free agent by St. Louis on 5/31/77. The Pittsburgh organization acquired him in a deal for pitcher John Stuper on 1/25/79.

PIRATE BROADCASTERS

Lanny Frattare

The "Voice of the Pirates," Lanny Frattare is in his 15th season with the club. Only Bob Prince and Rosey Rowswell have described Pirate action longer than Lanny. On August 9, 1988, Frattare broadcast his 2,000th Pirate game. A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his B.S. degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. His baseball broadcasting career began in 1968 when he did play-by-play for the Geneva (NY) Senators in the Class A New York-Penn League. Frattare's association with the Pirates began in 1974 when he served as a broadcaster for the Charleston Charlies, the Pirates' Triple-A International League affiliate. He worked the Charlies' games for two years before joining the Pirates' broadcast crew in 1976. In addition to his duties with the Pirates, he has been the radio voice of Penn State football and done television play-by-play for Ohio State basketball. He also was play-by-play voice of the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League for two seasons (1974-75 and 1975-76). Lanny enjoys golf, presidential history and music and he and his wife Liz are both involved in a number of Pittsburgh area civic and charity projects. Lanny also works closely with the Pirates Community Relations Dept. The Frattares reside in Upper St. Clair with their two children, David and Megan.

Jim Rooker

Jim Rooker is in his tenth year of broadcasting Pirate games. A former lefthanded pitcher, Rooker won 103 major league games, including 82 with the Pirates. Born in Lakeview, OR, Jim was raised in Southern California. Signed originally by Detroit as an outfielder, he didn't begin pitching on a regular basis until 1965. In 1968, he made his major league debut and pitched in two games for the World Champion Tigers. The Kansas City Royals drafted him in the third round of the expansion draft following the 1968 season and he remained with Kansas City until October 25, 1972, when he was acquired by the Pirates. "Rook" averaged 13 wins per season in his first five years as a Pirate. He will best be remembered as the Pirates' starting pitcher in Game #5 of the 1979 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles. With the Bucs down three games to one, Rooker allowed only one run over five innings while battling Oriole ace Mike Flanagan, before Pittsburgh came back to win the game and the series. Bothered by arm problems throughout the 1979 season, Rooker spent five months on the disabled list in 1980 before retiring at the end of the season. Jim enjoys golf, hunting, and traveling. He also is active in community relations for the Pirates. His "Unintentional Walk" this past off-season raised more than $38,000 for local charities. Rooker has three children — David (who pitched in the Pirates' farm system), Stephanie and Jami; he also has three grandchildren. He is the owner of Rook's East Side Saloon in Ambridge, PA.

DID YOU KNOW . . . KDKA Radio and KDKA-TV are both in their 36th consecutive year of association with the Pirates, having originated broadcasts every year since 1955 . . . KDKA Radio broadcast the first baseball game ever, when Harold Arlin was behind the microphone on August 5, 1921 when the Pirates played the Phillies.

Kent Derdivanis

Kent Derdivanis is in his first season as a member of the Pirates broadcast team. He will serve as the club's number two play-by-play man. The 34-year-old Derdivanis has broadcast an estimated 1,500 professional baseball games over the past 13 years.

His baseball broadcasting career began in 1977 when he was named play-by-play man for the Phoenix Firebirds, the Triple-A affiliate of the San Francisco Giants. Derdivanis has spent a total of seven seasons with Phoenix (1977-79 & 1986-89). His play-by-play background also includes two years at the major league level with the Milwaukee Brewers (1981) and the Boston Red Sox (1984). He gained additional experience at the Triple-A level with the Portland Beavers (1982) and the Denver Bears (1983).

His resume also includes nine years of experience broadcasting PAC-10 Conference football and basketball. Derdivanis served as the television voice of University of Arizona football and basketball the past four seasons. He worked in the same capacity for Arizona from 1980 to 1982 and did radio play-by-play for UCLA football and basketball in 1983 and 1984.

Derdivanis, a native of Salinas, CA, majored in broadcast journalism at the University of Southern California. He and his wife Beth have two sons; Matt (age four) and Corey (age two).

Steve Blass

Former Pirate righthander Steve Blass joined the Pirate broadcast crew in 1986. A native of Canaan, CT, Steve began his association with the Pirates when he signed his first professional contract in June of 1960. In 10 major league seasons (1964-74) with the Pirates, he compiled a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the Pirates' all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins. A member of the 1972 All-Star team, Blass won 78 games in a five-year period between 1968 and 1972. Steve was a Pirate hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete game wins in Games #3 and #7. After retiring following the 1974 season, Steve remained in Pittsburgh and worked in private business. Currently he is employed by the Frank B. Fuhrer Company. In 1982, he worked with Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts, and was retained when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment in 1983. Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and one grandchild.

DEAN JORDAN Director of Broadcasting and Advertising Sales

Dean Jordan was named Director of Broadcasting and Advertising Sales on November 24, 1987. His responsibilities include management of the Pirates in-house operated radio network, management of the Pirates over-the-air and cable television contracts with KDKA and TCI, supervision of Pirate announcers and sales management for all advertising on radio, in-stadium promotional days and publications. Additionally, he serves as the Pirates' representative for league and national broadcast interests with CBS and ESPN.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Dean served two years coordinating broadcasting, marketing and promotional efforts at Penn State University. Additionally, he handled various aspects of public relations with the electronic media for the Nittany Lions football program. While there, Jordan brought Penn State's broadcasting efforts in-house and enlarged the radio network to include stations in markets such as New York City and Los Angeles. He was a member of the administrative staff during the 1986 National Championship football season.

A native of Albemarle, N.C., Jordan was a broadcaster for three years on WINA Radio and the University of Virginia Sports Network in Charlottesville, VA. He was on the air for the Cavaliers trip to the Final Four in 1984 and their first ever post-season football appearance, the 1984 Peach Bowl. Additionally, he appeared on the George Welsh and Terry Holland television programs.

The 29-year-old Jordan and his wife Gail reside in the North Hills.

Note—In some cases, innings pitched and ERA do not match career totals shown in individual biographies. Prior to 1982, innings pitched were rounded off to the nearest whole inning (133.2 to 134) and ERA was calculated off the whole number. Beginning in 1982, innings pitched were listed exactly including thirds of innings, and ERA was calculated from that exact figure. The figures shown in pitchers' statistical breakdown section reflect exact totals for all years.

PIRATES HISTORY

History of the Pittsburgh Pirates

Now in its 104th National-League season, the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates is filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876 when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park (located on a plot bounded by Grant, Allegheny and Pennsylvania Avenues and the Ft. Wayne Railroad yards). Pittsburgh's victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League.

They staggered through a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent. When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs for which they had played in 1889. But Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the P.L. who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics of the American Association, went to Pittsburgh for the 1891 season. The A's and their A.A. brethren immediately began screaming "pirates" at the Pittsburgh club. Pittsburgh kept both Bierbauer and the nickname and became known as the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pirates' fortunes turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the now-defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates.

Pirate President Barney Dreyfuss — "Father of the World Series"

In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought with him 14 players from the Louisville roster, including future Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell, plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the League's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World Championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles (he added an eighth in 1911) and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. Dreyfuss, one of the pioneers of the game, is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he boldly challenged Henry Killilea, owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition.

The Pirates finished runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the leagues' batting champions, Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, 12-3 for the Bucs during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero.

One of the greatest third basemen in baseball history, Pie Traynor compiled a .320 lifetime batting average.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and final game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who guided the Bucs until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field — the first park completely built with concrete and steel — on June 30th. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments, though never a no-hitter.

The Pirates sank into the second division for most of the next decade, but by the early twenties — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three consecutive third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates captured the National League title by eight and one-half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925. The Series matched the Bucs against the Washington Senators and, after four games, the Senators and their star pitcher, Walter Johnson, held a seemingly insurmountable three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, won the final three games, including a 15-hit pounding of Johnson in Game #7, and came away with a piece of baseball history: prior to the 1925 Pirates, no team had ever overcome a three-games-to-one deficit in a seven-game series.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336 (still a rookie record). A year later his brother Lloyd joined him, belted out 223 hits for a .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul — "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three N.L. batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in a season on eight occasions. He was named the league's MVP in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — "Little Poison" — hit over .300 in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were later elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 Series

featured the Pirates against the "Murderers' Row" Yankees with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig and the Bucs were swept in four straight games. For the next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner although they certainly weren't denied great players and great moments. The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the thirties with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any other player. Traylor was recognized as one of the era's best all-around players and, in a poll conducted during baseball's centennial celebration in 1969, was voted the game's greatest third baseman ever (Wagner was tabbed the greatest shortstop ever). Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped .300 in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-41) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any N.L. performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

In the 1940's, future Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of his seven seasons with the Pirates (1946-52)

— a streak still unmatched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games from May 19th to May 28th and, three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. That same year, ElRoy Face compiled 17 straight wins in relief.

Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of his seven seasons with the Pirates (1946-52).

Though the Pirates never finished higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put in place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and future Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente (drafted from the Dodger organization in 1955).

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired 37-year-old Joe L. Brown — the son of famous actor and comedian Joe E. Brown — as general manager. With the Bucs languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the '57 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to interim field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees, this time featuring Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever. The Yankees won Games #2, #3 and #6 by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field (where the Pirates had lost two of three games). The Pirates took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off the Yankees' Ralph Terry. Mazeroski remains the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run.

third only once. The Pirates, in fact, remain the N.L. Eastern Division's winningest team since divisional play began in 1969. The Bucs own a 1736-1594 record for a .521 winning percentage — seven percentage points ahead of St. Louis.

Harvey Haddix authored what many consider the "greatest game ever pitched" on May 26, 1959.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite. He collected more hits (1,877) than any other player during the decade and would go on to collect 3,000 in his career. He topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's MVP in 1966.

During the decade of the seventies, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In the 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as

The Pirates also captured two more World Championships in the seventies (1971 and 1979). The 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game #7) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was baseball's leading home-run hitter during the 1970's with 296.

The newest chapter of Pirate history began on October 2, 1985 when a group of public and private investors — committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh — reached an agreement in principle to purchase the Pirates from the Galbreath family and Warner Communications.

tion in 1988 when they finished second and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark by drawing 1,866,713 fans to Three Rivers Stadium. That year, the Pirates were named Pittsburgh Magazine's 1988 "Pittsburghers of the Year" as "the person (or group) who has had the greatest impact on the city of Pittsburgh in the last year."

A Century of Pirate UNIFORMS

For the 1990 season, the Pirates reintroduced "Pittsburgh" to their road jerseys, replacing "Pirates," which they had worn away from home since 1953.

Following is a brief chronology of Pirate uniform changes since the turn of the century.

1900

The uniform of the three-time National League champions (1901-02-03) is awed much as the pinstriped Yankee uniform of later years. The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. The stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P." The uniform changed very little during the decade except for an ornate capital "P" which was added to the left front jersey pocket. A "PBC" monogram — signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club — was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1910

In the years between 1910 and 1915, the Pirates abandoned tradition to follow new trends in uniform design. The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button lapel. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As team nicknames became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in vertical capital letters down the button lapel. The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button. The latter half of the decade saw the solid blue lapel replaced by an outline trim in piping of various widths. During this period, the cap included a "P" of white or red and a capital "P" on the left breast periodically appeared in various styles.

1920

Baseball uniforms of the twenties were by and large somber and conservative and the Pirate uniforms of this decade reflected this retreat to austerity. Standard whites were worn at home, grey on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 and 1927 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on both sleeves but not on the jersey front.

1930

If the prosperity of the twenties reflected a drabness in uniforms, the hard times of the thirties gave birth to a virtual explosion of added colors, trim features and graphic innovations. The Pirate uniform brightened up considerably in 1933 as the name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belt tunnels and loops were included and piping trim incorporated both blue and red. A wide, bold red stripe dressed up the blue stockings and the "P" on the blue cap was also red.

1937

The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1939

A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1941

The Pirates introduced the most innovative feature on their uniforms to date as the "P" or "Pirates" on the jersey front was replaced by a colorful emblem depicting the head of a buccaneer in appropriate headdress, (earring and bandana) on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. The Pirate emblem was the only graphic representation of the team nickname on a game jersey in the team's history and later provided inspiration for the team's current logo.

1948

A new era of team color began when black and gold replaced red and blue.

1953

The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey and replaced with "Pirates." It will not reappear on the Pirate uniform until 1990.

1957

The Pirates began wearing sleeveless jerseys, following the Cincinnati Reds, who adopted the style a season earlier.

1962

Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys.

1970

To inaugurate Three Rivers Stadium, the Pirates became the first major-league club to adopt the new double-knit-fabric uniforms. The color scheme of black and gold was retained as was the basic lettering style of "Pirates." But the jersey was a pullover with no buttons or zipper and the pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other major-league team was wearing double-knits.

1976

The Pirates — as well as other clubs — commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Pirates wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977

The Pirates replaced their traditional scheme of white home uniforms and grey road uniforms with combinations of gold and black as well as pinstriping. The yellow crown and black stripes of the cap were reversed (black crown with yellow stripes) and would remain the Pirate cap style until 1987.

1985

The Pirates returned to the basic white and grey uniform formula.

1987

The Pirates abandoned the striped cap in favor of the standard black round crown type.

The name "Pittsburgh" is reintroduced on the road jersey for first time since 1952.

The Pittsburgh Pirates signed a three-year working agreement with the Mexico City Reds that took effect April 1, 1989. As part of the agreement, Pittsburgh will provide the Reds with three players per year. "The Pittsburgh Pirates feel very excited and fortunate to be able to work with Roberto Mansur (team owner & league vice president) and the Mexico City Reds," said Chuck LaMar, the Pirates' Director of Minor League Operations. "In doing so we can establish ourselves as a leader in developing players from Mexico for our farm system."
